Location: Turks Caicos – Long Bay

Located directly on the pristine sands of Long Bay Beach, Villa Sacha is a rare example of a private residence designed to function as an exclusive micro-resort. Set along one of the most secluded stretches of the Turks and Caicos, the property delivers a refined hospitality experience where privacy, personalized service, and world-class amenities blend seamlessly.

Absolute Privacy in a Prime Beachfront Setting

Long Bay Beach is celebrated for its powder-soft white sand and shallow turquoise waters that extend for miles. Villa Sacha enjoys a particularly secluded position, far from crowded areas of the island. On most days, the only footprints in the sand will be your own—an increasingly rare privilege in the Caribbean.

The architecture emphasizes openness and light, with expansive indoor and outdoor living areas designed for both comfort and sophistication. Panoramic terraces, shaded lounge spaces, and lush tropical gardens create an atmosphere that is elegant yet relaxed, making the villa ideal for family retreats, executive gatherings, or exclusive private events.
